

EHS GROUP

CODE OF ETHICS

PREAMBLE

EHS Code of Ethics sets out the basis of the EHS Group's relationship with customers, suppliers, staff and the law. It is derived from the Group's operating values and practices and the EHS Spirit.

The EHS Spirit's main elements are:

1. Two-way loyalty of staff to management and management to staff.
2. Commitment to quality service and a willingness to go the extra mile.
3. Valuing of people: demonstrating care for the interests of customers and all who do work for EHS.
4. Building enduring relationships with customers and suppliers through long-term commitments and face-to-face contacts.
5. Honesty in communication with customers and all who do work for EHS.
6. Compliance with all relevant laws, regulations and internal EHS Group policies.

This Code of Ethics reflects these values and acts to preserve them. The Code addresses:

1. Global corporate ethics
2. EHS customers
3. EHS staff, subcontractors, consultants and suppliers
4. Community and environment

Tony Coker
Group Managing Director

January 2014

EHS GROUP GLOBAL CORPORATE ETHICS

1. The EHS Group respects and abides by the laws of the countries in which it operates and all relevant supranational laws and regulations. Further, EHS people conduct their business in full understanding of, and in compliance with, EHS Group policies including those covering corruption, bribery, money laundering, whistle blowing and trade sanctions.
2. The EHS Group respects the rights and cultural practices of people in the countries in which it operates.
3. The EHS Group provides a work environment free of discrimination and harassment based on age, ancestry, colour, marital status, medical condition, mental disability, physical disability (including persons infected with the HIV virus or persons with AIDS), national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation or veteran status.

EHS CUSTOMERS

1. EHS's customers can expect EHS employees to do all within their power to meet their needs and exceed their expectations.
2. EHS's customers can expect all EHS employees to deal honestly with them and not commit any crime at their behest.
3. EHS's customers can expect EHS employees to work to create enduring and positive relationships with them.

EHS EMPLOYEES, SUPPLIERS, SUBCONTRACTORS AND CONSULTANTS

1. People who undertake work for EHS do so cooperatively in a spirit of trust built on honest communication, professional conduct, fairness in business dealings and in full compliance with all laws and regulations.
2. The EHS Group values highly the cultural diversity of all who undertake work for EHS and nurtures their willingness and capacity to work together to achieve common goals.
3. EHS employees ensure that workplace health and safety standards and practices are given priority and extend to all who undertake work for EHS.
4. EHS managers support the honest efforts of all staff to improve themselves and make provision for training and professional development to ensure staff are appropriately equipped for the jobs they are required to do on behalf of customers.

5. EHS managers recognise that all who undertake work for EHS are connected to families and that the well-being of the family has an impact on their ability to work effectively.
6. EHS employees will neither attempt to use their standing as employees of EHS to derive a private business advantage for themselves, any associate or family member nor engage in any other activity which constitutes a conflict of interest between their private and professional roles.

COMMUNITY AND ENVIRONMENT

1. EHS managers are committed to creating a healthy and safe work environment for all who undertake work for EHS.
2. EHS companies are committed over the long term to creating a more sustainable environment through the development of effective recycling and waste management policies and practices.
3. EHS employees recognise the importance of contributing to the well-being and development of the communities in which they work.
4. EHS is committed to causing no harm to the environment.